

Global Public Health Scholars

A Glo-Lo Living and Learning Program

Service

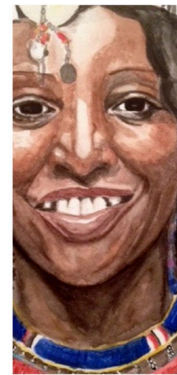

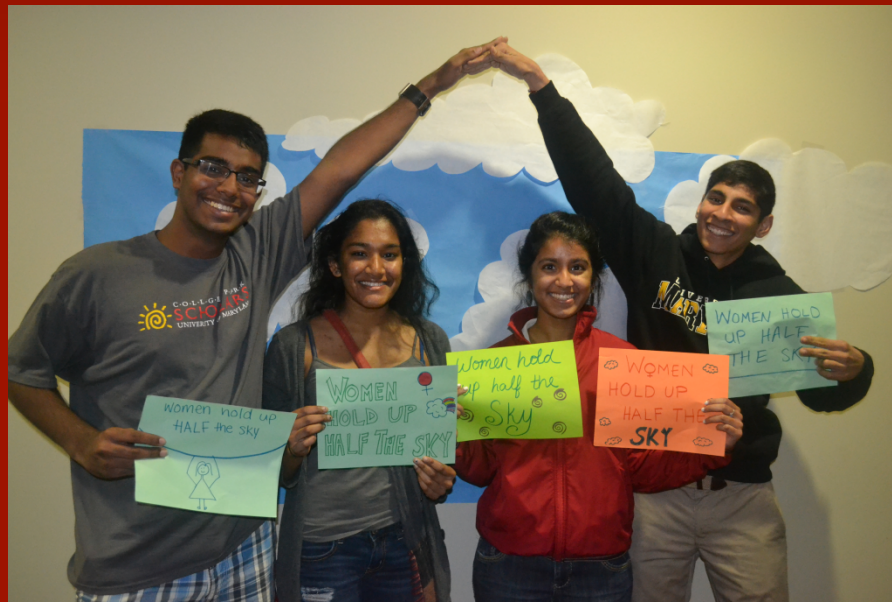

Coursework

Practicum

The collage features four main images with text overlays: 'FIELD TRIPS' (top left), 'LIVING & LEARNING' (top right), 'GIVING BACK' (middle right), and 'SERVICE DAY!' (bottom left). A fifth image, 'STUDY ABROAD', is at the bottom right. Logos for USAID, National Institutes of Health, and the University of Maryland are present. A contact box at the bottom center reads: 'For more information contact Program Director, Dr. Elisabeth Maring, at efmaring@umd.edu'. The 'College Park scholars' logo is in the bottom right corner.

Dr. Elisabeth Maring, efmaring@umd.edu University of Maryland, College Park
Global-Local Preconference, CUGH 2015

Half the Sky Movement

half the sky
movement
at University of Maryland

PORTRAITS FOR SOCIAL CHANGE

An art gallery event exploring global injustices against women and celebrating leaders on the front lines of change.

Featuring artwork by Melanie Oppenheimer

Co-sponsored by: Half the Sky at UMD & the School of Public Health

EXHIBITION:
April 7th - April 11th
in the School of Public Health lobby

MEET THE ARTIST RECEPTION:
Wednesday, April 9th
at 10am in the SPH
Student Lounge

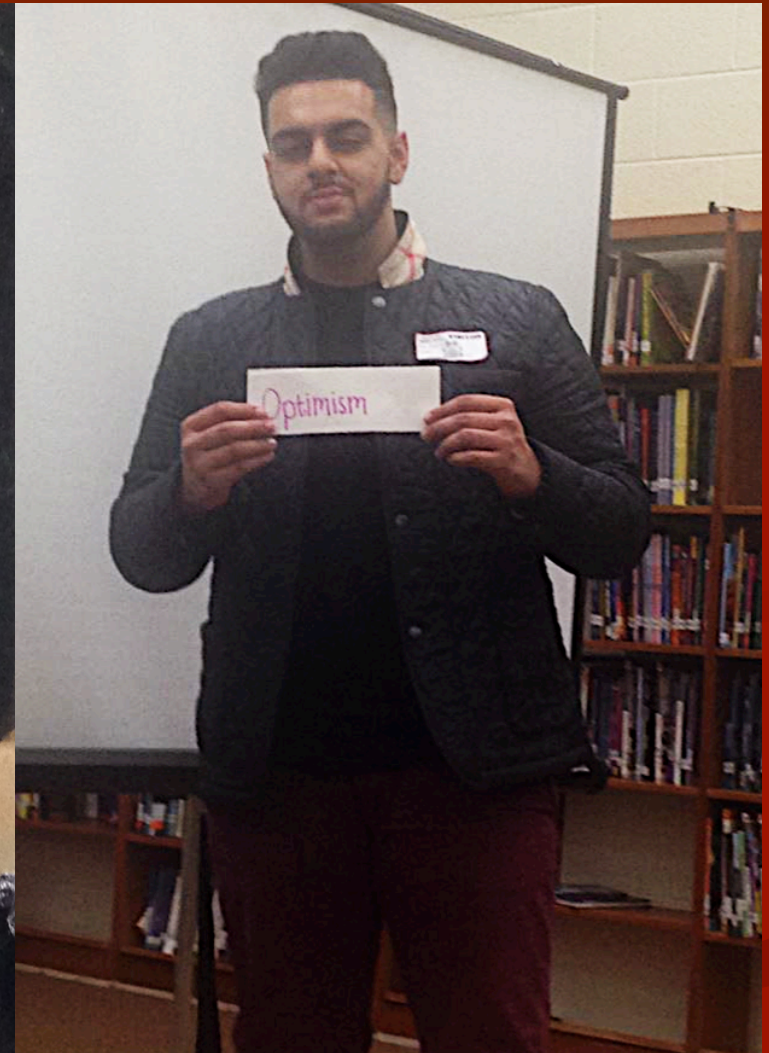

Made possible
by a grant from the Half the Sky
Movement

Public Health without Borders

Syed in Sierra Leone teaching handwashing

Syed in Hyattsville, MD teaching life skills

Practicum Projects

“The Practicum experience helped put into practice concepts learned in Scholars and is a valuable preparation for future professional and academic experiences.”